

THE WINDMILL
FINE FOOD & ALES
— SINCE 1794 —

Our story dates back to 1794 when The Windmill was built to serve both the growing traffic along the newly opened sections of the Leeds to Liverpool canal and farmers delivering grain to the neighbouring Windmill.

Our beloved pub quickly became the beating heart of the village, a gathering place for locals seeking warmth, conversation and a well-poured ale, a tradition which endures to this day. Standing the test of time, The Windmill continues to uphold the values of a true country pub with laughter, the clink of glasses, and a welcoming glow of hearth.

Here's to another two centuries.
